

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

"ECKENER! ER LEBE HOCHI!"—Just to show what they thought of gallant exploit of the Graf Zeppelin, New Yorkers almost buried Dr. Hugo Eckener and his companions in an avalanche of confetti, ticker tape and pages ripped from telephone books. The picture shows the "iron chancellor of the air" waving a greeting to crowds on lower Broadway.

International Newsreel

SUNSET AT SEA—This gorgeous sunset presented itself to voyagers on the Graf Zeppelin as they soared Westward across the Atlantic. It was recorded in film by Robert Hartmann, MGM News and International Newsreel staff cameraman, the only photographer aboard the airship.

Copyright, 1928, MGM News and International Newsreel

JUST AQUA PURA—Governor and Mrs. Alfred E. Smith enjoy a drink of cold spring water on the grounds of the Lincoln Memorial at Louisville, Ky., one of Southern cities on the nominee's swing through Dixie.

International Newsreel

PRETTY SKY WRITER—Here's the only member of her sex to cross the ocean on the Graf Zeppelin, Lady Drummond Hay, British noblewoman, who wrote her version of the voyage for American newspapers. Banging out a story thousands of feet above the Atlantic—that's a real assignment!

International Newsreel

SIGHTSEEING!—You can tell from Aimee Sample McPherson's exalted expression that she's enjoying this view from the Tower bridge in London. In the picture with her is her son, Ralph.

International Newsreel

NOCTURNE—This splendid photo shows Campanile of the Springfield, Mass., municipal group of buildings, a tower of light in a velvety, black sky during the reception to Herbert Hoover, Republican nominee.

International Illustrated News

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER—That's Gordon (Micky) Cochrane, 25-year-old catcher for Connie Mack's Athletics. The award was made by magnates of the American league at close of 1928 season.

International Illustrated News

CHAMPION ORATOR—Meet Rene Ponthieu, of la belle France, who took first place in international oratorical contest held in Washington, D. C. He "outtalked" competitors from all over the world.

International Illustrated News

CRITICAL MOMENT—This striking photo shows a breathless bit of action in football game between Arsenal and Huddersfield at Highbury, Eng., as W. Smith (left) and F. Jones fight for the bounding ball.

International Illustrated News

THEY'VE GONE TALKIE!—Smiling a welcome to the "land of the free and home of the brave," Maurice Chevalier, the "song and dance man" of France, and Mme. Chevalier, made this pretty picture as they came up New York harbor on S. S. Ile de France. They're en route to Hollywood to parlez Francaise for the movies.

International Newsreel

MENDING YSER DIKE—Scene of some of the bitterest fighting of the World War, the Yser-Nieuport sector now is witnessing another kind of battle. The picture shows soldiers desperately at work attempting to mend a breach in the Yser dike.

International Illustrated News